DEATH OF DR. SOUTHALL. Sketch of His Long and Useful Life-

Other Deaths. death of Dr. Philip Francis Southall, at Amelia Courthouse, on Thursday, removes from Amelia one of its best-known citizens, and from the Southall family in Virginia its oldest member.

He was born April 6, 1822, at Jamestown, in Prince Edward, the then home of his father, Dr. Philip T. Southall. His mother was Miss Frances Lockett. He was the only full brother of the late Professor Stephen O. Southall, of the University of Virginia. The eminent success of his father, perhaps, attracted him to the medical profession, and his education as a physocian was completed at Richmond Medical College.

The sudden and unexpected death of Mrs. Cornelia B. Alcutt, wife of Mr. Charles B. Alcutt, of Jacksonville, Fla., has already been announced in these columns. The remains of this beloved lady were placed temporarily in Laube's vault, in Hollywood, awaiting the arrival of her husband, who arrived Friday rival of her husband, who arrived Friday at an early hour. Mr. Alcutt was telegraphed to, but he had already left for Virginia, expecting to take a vacation and spend it in Virginia with his wife. The storms which prevailed in Georgia in the early part of the week were terrible, and the train on which Mr. Alcutt was coming was caught up in the woods, and there remained for some two or three days. So he had never received the teledays. So he had never received the tele-gram, and on arriving here full of pleasant anticipations at meeting his wife, he was confronted with the heart-rending facts already stated.

Mrs. Alcutt died with peritonitis. Her remains were interred yesterday afternoon in the beautiful grounds of Hollywood. Mrs. Alcutt had a number of friends in Virginia and Florida, and the news of her death will be a source of incorrect the state of the s sincore regret, for she was a lady pos-sessed of those womanly qualities which are a crown of beauty to womanhood; in-deed, she was a womanly woman; no higher tribute could be paid.

Other Deaths and Funerals.

The remains of Mr. Samuel Freedley were taken yesterday morning to Norristown, Pa., for interment. The services over the body were held at 7:55 o'clock, at the residence, No. 105 east Franklin street. The body was then taken to the Byrd-Street Station, whence it left, accompanied by the family, at 8:45 o'clock. The funeral of Private Albert J. Rouse, of the Second Regiment, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock, from St. Peter's Cathedral. The pall-bearers will be: Privates Jennings, Pittman, Talcott, Anass, Beauchamp, and Thompson. DELIGHTFUL GOLF TOURNAMENT.

Annual Meeting Also of the Lakeside

Wheel Club-Enjoy a Banquet.

The annual golf tournament and ban-quet of the Lakeside Wheel Club, held yesterday afternoon and evening at Lakeside Park, was a most enjoyable and successful affair, exceeding the expectations of the club's most sanguine members. Officers for the ensuing year were also elected.

The golf tournament took place at a P. M. sharp, and some forty or fifty were engaged in the sport. The attendance of spectators among members of the club and the public generally was the largest and most enthusiastic ever known.

Mr. Abram Warwick won the Starke trophy by a score of 39 points, against 22 points made by Mr. H. K. Terry, the next best scorer. A number of others made nearly as good records. The trophy was won last year by Mr. H. K. Ellyson. If either this gentleman or Mr. Warwick win the cup again, it becomes theirs per-sonally. The next tournament will take place next Saturday afternoon o'clock.

The shooting match, which was close and full of interest, followed immediateand ruli of interest, followed immediately. Those who took part in the match were Messrs. W. L. Boyd, Levin Joynes, Edwin Hewitt, H. G. Cannon, G. D. George, W. A. Hammond, R. C. Williams, John H. Harrison, Richmond Lewis, W. H. Blair, Miss Hammond, Miss Hawes, Mr. Ad. Williams, Mr. R. H. Johnson, and many others.

In the evening the annual meeting election of officers, and banquet took place at the club-house. Mr. Richmond Lewis, the incumbent president, was nominated for re-election, and the Board of Governors called upon the secretary to cast the unanimous vote of the body for Mr. Lewis. Mr. Lewis gracefully accepted the position, and presided during the remainder of the meeting.

Mr. Levin Joynes was cletted vice-president, and E. V. Williams, secretary and treasurer. The following gentlemen were elected new members of the Board of Governors; Richmond Lewis, George A. Gibson, Levin Joynes, H. A. Williams, E. T. D. Myers, Jr., L. W. McVeigh, and W. R. Jackson.

A motion was made in the meeting to change the name of the club to Lakeside Country Club. The motion was carried, subject to the ratification of the club. It was announced to the assembled members that a new wheel path was being constructed from Richmond to Lakeside, which will shorten the dis-tance about two miles. The track will be of the very best kind.

The report of the secretary showed that the financial condition of the club was excellent, and that there had been a gain of membership of fifty-one during a gain of membership of fifty-one during the year. This brings the number of present membership close to the limit of 300. All agreed that the affairs of the club were never in such good condition. or was there more enthusiasm manifested by individual members.

The banquet, which followed, was informal, but an affair which would have brought paradise to the mortal vision of an epicure.

Hottest Kind of Finish, With Lady Lindsay Second, and King Barleycorn Third.

NEW YORK, October 8.-In spite of the lisagreeable weather at Morris Park today, the fine card induced many to appear in the rain. For the Rancho del Pase Stakes there was little choice in favoritism between King Barleycorn and Himline, while Lady Lindsay was next best in the betting. The start was good, with Himline in front, which position he held for a couple of furlongs, when Lady Lindsay took up the running, and looked like a winner up to the last few jumps, when Taral began driving Martimas' and Turner King Barleycorn, and in the hottest kind of a finish Taral landed the Futurity winner by a head over Lady Lindsay, who was a head in front of Lindsay, who was a head in front of King Barleycorn.
